Frequently asked questions.

Here are some of the most-asked questions about Express. Looking for more information? Visit americanspecialtyexpress.com.

How do I get my agency code?

Contact us at express@americanspecialty.com to receive your unique agency code. This code can be used by all agents in your agency.

Is there a volume commitment required?

No. Express comes with no strings attached, whether you need a single quote or more than you can count. Once you see how easy it is to use, you're sure to keep coming back.

Can I add additional insureds?

Absolutely. You can add as many additional insureds as you need, and there's no charge. Once you go through the online process and bind coverage for the event or business, you have the opportunity to add additional insureds on the policy.

What's the commission on Express?

All quotes include 10% commission for your agency.
